

Shasta plant in GC serves half of U.S.

By BILL WINTER
Editor
Shasta Beverages, Granite City, singled out Friday for recognition by its parent corporation, now serves half the nation (eastward from Denver, Colo.) with beverage concentrate. The western half is served from the firm's headquarters city, Hayward, Calif. In addition to its flavoring and extract division here, the local plant also is one of 16 Shasta soft drink canning plants, serving Illinois, Arkansas, half of Missouri and parts of Indiana and Tennessee. The spotless, automated facilities produce about three million cases yearly, each case containing 24 cans of Shasta soft drinks. The national company also is test marketing a new product, Capri Sun natural fruit drinks.

Rape prevention steps

"Scream. Let someone know you're there," said Officer Fred Hoffman of the Granite City Police. He gave this advice to more than 70 participants at a rape prevention seminar at St. Elizabeth Medical Center (SEMC).

In the photo, Granite Cityans Debbie Coker, Denise Driggers and Debra Kibort inspect "Send Help" signs available at the seminar.

The seminar, "Lady Beware," was the second in a series of community service programs sponsored by the local medical center. Hoffman presented a film by the same title that accentuated the SAFE way to prevent rape and attack. SAFE is an acronym for secure, avoid, flee and engage. "The prevention of rape and attack lies in common sense thinking," Officer Hoffman said. "Don't go down dark streets; lock your car doors; check your cars before getting into them. "All these things are common sense thinking that can prevent attack situations. "We also stress preserving evidence in the event of a rape or

Hostages remembered as Christmas nears

Church bells are being rung, cards and letters are being written and mailed, and additional actions are being taken by Quad-Cityans and other Americans concerned for the safety of 50 U.S. citizens held hostage in Iran. Observance of Respect America

With the holiday season drawing near, many are sending Christmas greetings for the hostages, in care of such radio stations as KSLQ and KWK.

Delay school sale a month

A delay in the public auction of McKinley Grade School was announced today by Regional School Supt. Harold E. Briggs. Attracting no bidders this fall at $300,000, the school at Niedringhaus and Madison avenues and Iowa and 22nd streets was scheduled to be offered for $200,000 or more this Friday, Dec. 14. However, an error in legal notices has made a postponement necessary. The auction is to be rescheduled, tentatively for Jan. 25.

50¢ fuel tax debated

Uncle Sam has gotten Quad-Cityans' attention regarding auto use and gasoline consumption. But all the talk of a new tax of 50 cents per gallon has been somewhat of a jolt to budget-minded families.

Carter administration officials said Friday they are giving serious thought to asking Congress to boost the present four-cent federal gasoline tax to 54 cents. They describe this as a way of avoiding or delaying gasoline rationing, since the big tax would cause many motorists to reduce their driving.

Sen. Edward Kennedy, who is opposing Pres. Jimmy Carter for the Democratic presidential nomination, opposed the plan Saturday, saying it would cost the average family $200 a year in 1981. He added, "The American public is already numb from the soaring cost of energy."

Combined with an earlier decision to phase out price controls on oil, the yearly cost to a typical family might

Air battle simulated

By PAT FOLEY

The U.S. Army unveiled one of the most sophisticated new tactical training devices during demonstrations held at the Granite City Army Installation Thursday afternoon.

Area weather outlook

Mostly sunny, windy and warmer today with high up to the 60s. Cloudy tonight, low in the 40s. Cloudy Tuesday, with chance of showers; high near 60. Wednesday through Friday, chance of rain. Lows in the low 30s. Highs in low 50s.

The Tactical Radar Threat Generator, TRTG for short, will greatly aid the Army's ability to train aircrews to survive and win in combat while under heavy anti-aircraft fire.

The TRTG, developed and produced by Emerson Electric, Electronics and Space Division, St. Louis, simulates enemy radar and infrared tracking devices. When used with the aircraft's radar warning receiver, it virtually duplicates real combat situations.

There are several configurations of the TRTG. Thursday's demonstration, a truck-bed camper shell model was used mounted in a

United campaign is approaching 2-3rds

The current figure is considerably behind last year's record fall solicitation of $601,913, but Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign chairman George Knecht still voiced optimism as he announced this fall's $433,801 receipts and pledges at the final public report meeting Friday.

A major contribution by the Granite City Steel Torch Club has yet to be made due to resocialization of the entire work force of the steel plant. Ed Boyer is heading the resocialization for the Torch Club and it is hoped that it will be completed by the club's board of directors meeting scheduled for Dec. 18.

The total so far is 72 percent of last year's achievement and 57.8 percent of

Defends conduct

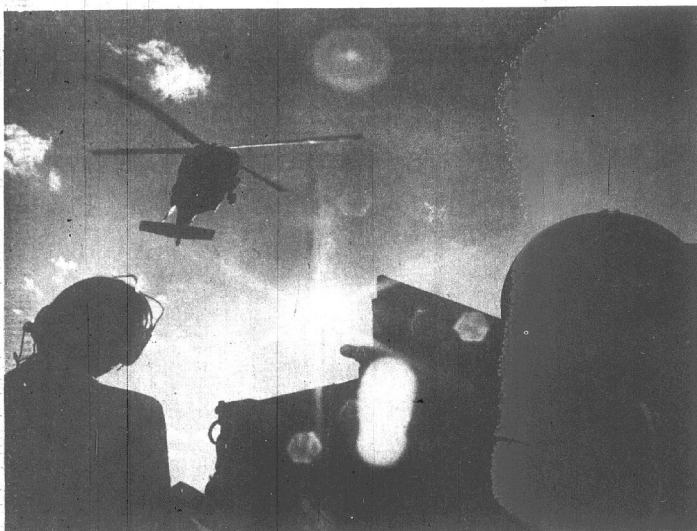

Conduct Dec. 4 by Michael L. Jessece of Granite City was within his rights, he said Friday in response to Thursday's article mentioning he had been charged with unlawful use of a weapon and with battery.

He and two women who accompanied him to property he owns on Manley Avenue were threatened and intimidated and the three plan to swear out warrants, he alleged, adding that another man struck the first blow but was not arrested by police officers at the residence.

A loaded .38 caliber revolver and a nightstick remained in holsters on his person throughout an argument with his former father-in-law, he related, the weapons had been left inside the trunk of his car until he arrived at his property, in compliance with the law, he asserted.

Because of damage at various times to his property, he has sought to restrict access to it by some persons, Jessece said. He added that factors in the Dec. 4 dispute stem from failure by others to cooperate with court-ordered child visitation procedures.

Police failed to arrive at the same time as he did, despite being alerted of his plan to visit the Manley property, and ignored normal procedures in the arrest, including provision of receipts for the weapons, Jessece alleged.

INVASION OF GRANITE CITY?

No, just one of several U.S. Army helicopters of the 101st Airborne Division as it passes over the Army's newest training system, the TRTG (Tactical Radar Threat Generator). Thursday afternoon during a demonstration of the system at the Granite City Army Installation. The TRTG, developed and manufactured by Emerson Electric's Electronics and Space Division, St.

Louis, simulates enemy radar tracking systems that are used to lock onto target aircraft and aim anti-aircraft artillery. Aircraft, such as helicopters, are equipped with radar warning devices which tell the pilot that his craft is being scanned and locked onto by enemy radar, so that proper evasive maneuvers can be initiated for survival during combat. Taped translation heard at geneological meeting

The Madison County Geneological and Historical Society met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kirksey. A business meeting was held during which new sources for census records for several Illinois counties were noted.

Following the business portion of the meeting the Kirkseys spoke on their geneological research; of particular interest was a taped translation from Germany of a mid-nineteenth century diary. Refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Kirksey shared their hobby work-showrooms with those present.

The December meeting will take place Dec. 20 at 7:30 p.m. at the Krug home at 2506 Denver Ave. Anyone interested in geneology is welcome to attend.

Spotlight hostages' condition—Michel

By ROBERT ESTILL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Are American newsmen misdirecting coverage of the situation in Iran?

House Minority Whip Bob Michel, R-Peoria, thinks this is happening outside the U.S. Embassy in Tehran.

Students are vocal and active but shrug off questions raised by the news media about abuse of the hostages there.

"I am sick and tired of seeing the demonstrations every day," Michel comments.

"It is a programmed kind of deal. How long can you keep the American people interested when here I am, as an official of the government, thinking 'Gads' there has got to be some other news than seeing that demonstration every day."

Cong. Michel thinks American correspondents in Iran should ask that all the hostages be assembled in one place to determine if they are all alive and how they are being treated.

The U.S. government has demanded a third-party inspection of the captives, but Michel thinks the Iranians might be more receptive to requests from the news media than to demands from the state department.

"They have obviously been playing to the media for exposure of the cause," Michel said.

He said he has no doubts, from what little is known, that the treatment of the hostages falls within the United Nations' definition of "torture."

A UN resolution adopted in 1975 defines torture as "an act by which severe pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, is intentionally inflicted by, or at the instigation of, a public official on a person" to obtain information or a confession, as punishment for an act or suspected act or for intimidation.

Michel said little is known of 30 hostages who have had no outside contact for at least two weeks, but it is known that the other 20 hostages are being abused.

"For a month, they have been separated from each other, three to a room, and not allowed to speak," Michel said.

"They are bound, all the hands and some the feet, and confined to chairs."

"They are forced to face the wall in rooms that may be heated while some are falling. Some have been subjected to verbal harranguing for hours at a time."

"This is the condition of hostages who have been put on display by the Iranians. What is the condition and circumstances of those hostages who have been hidden from public view?"

And that is a question Michel was raising before the White House announced some American hostages have been released at a summit with execution if they failed to "cooperate."

Michel would like to see the media asking even more questions about abuses in order to press home the urgency of the situation to both the American people and other world governments.

If the true conditions of the hostages is made known, other nations will get the message that it could happen to them, Michel believes.

That could spur other nations to take a more fervent role in condemning the action, pressing for release of the hostages and, if necessary, joining the U.S. in an economic boycott of Iran, Michel said.

He is not suggesting that reporters try to play diplomats; it is not their role, and they are not equipped for it.

But he does suggest that the news gathering process should require vigorous questioning of the Iranian government about the treatment of the hostages.

On that point, Michel is right on cue.

The Iranians have a right to sound off against the shah or the U.S. government. But the world has a right to know the full measure of how the rights of American hostages are being violated.

Campus shuttle bus

A new plan for campus bus shuttle service at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, to and from the quadrangle on Hairpin Drive and the "fan" parking lots, will be initiated Jan. 2 at the beginning of the winter quarter, according to Harry Lutz, director of Auxiliary Services.

Service will be provided to customers with a paid pass from 9 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. daily, except 5:30 p.m. on Friday.

The bus will make round trips every 15 minutes during peak traffic periods and at 30-minute intervals during the remainder of the day and evening.

Cost of the pass, which will permit unlimited rides on the bus, will be $8 for the winter quarter. The pass will be placed on sale at the Office of the Bursar, beginning Dec. 17.

Lutz pointed out that the plan is being tried on an experimental basis. He is hoping at least 300 passes will be sold, which would mean approximately 600 riders daily, assuming each person rides twice.

If 150 passes are not sold by Jan. 18, the service will be discontinued and fees will be refunded to purchasers.

Hold GC men in E. Alton murder

Robert L. Davis, 28, of Rural Route Two, Granite City, is being held by East Alton police, who plan to apply today for felony warrants against him in connection with the fatal shooting of an East Alton man at his home about 11:25 p.m. Friday.

Robert B. Cannon, 38, was shot once in the head and died at Wood River Township Hospital at 12:07 a.m. Saturday, about 40 minutes after the shooting, according to Agent Dick Barrett of the Illinois Division of Criminal Investigation. The DCI was called in to assist East Alton police in the investigation.

Also being held in East Alton is Steven D. Watkins, 28, of Terminal Avenue in Granite City, who allegedly obstructed investigating officers by hiding the murder weapon in an alley. He was taken to the gun, it was alleged.

Barrett said the shooting was apparently the result of an argument which began at Cannon's home and was "probably personal." He discounted one published report the murder was a "contract" killing, saying, "there are no signs of anything like that, far as we can tell."

Charges against Davis and Watkins are expected to be filed today after conversations with the Madison County state's attorney's warrant office.

RESTITUTION ORDERED

James Seisser, 41, Kansas City, Mo., has been placed on two years of probation and has been ordered to make restitution totaling $1,635 after pleading guilty to theft. Associate Judge John W. Day pronounced sentence in Madison County Circuit Court. A second theft charge was dismissed. Seisser allegedly was involved in a July 6, 1978, incident in Pontoon Beach, according to court records.

Two brothers, Guy and Elmer Marsh, preceded him in death.

Services were held at 1 p.m. today at a Belleville funeral home, with burial at Lake View Memorial Gardens, Belleville.

Emmett J. Viessmann, 70, of 2900 E. 23rd St., a local businessman for many years, died at 5 a.m. Sunday at the Colonades.

Mr. Viessmann had resided for several years at the nursing home facility. Prior to retiring, he had operated Emmett's Market on Edwards Street and previously on East 24th Street.

Mr. Viessmann had lived in Granite City the past 55 years. He was born in Brinktown, Mo.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eileen Viessmann; one daughter, Mrs. Henry (Dolores) Metcalf of Granite City; a son, Michael Viessmann of Granite City; five sisters, Mrs. John (Gertrude) McMurtry, Mrs. Leonard (Catherine) Surra, both of Granite City.

The plaque was signed by Shasta President Robert Jaunich and Vice-President C. B. Lowry.

Established here in 1961 by Royal Crown Cola Co., the plant—on a northern extension of Missouri Avenue, immediately south of A. O. Smith Corp.—has been operated by Shasta since 1970. It won the company-wide competition among Shasta plants in 1973 and 1978 as well as 1979.

Accepting the new plaque were Plant Manager Norman Knaas, Quality Control Manager Jerry Mudrusic and Quality Control Technicians Carl Tankley and John Mayfield.

Among those attending were 30 employees, plus 10 representatives of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

President Jimmy Carter and Illinois Governor James Thompson have asked that church bells toll at 12 noon each day, reminding the public to pray for the hostages.

Two officials also have suggested writing to the Iranian Mission to the United Nations, 622 Third Ave., New York City, N. Y. 10017 to urge that the Embassy personnel be released from their captivity in Tehran, Iran.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, in cooperation with other civic, fraternal and patriotic organizations, are sponsoring a nationwide salute, Respect America Week, Dec. 10-17.

Actions suggested by the VFW are "initiated only by citizens' imaginations" but, by way of illustration, include:

—Flying the U. S. flag 24 hours a day this week, spotlighting the flag at night.

—Displaying the flag on vehicle radio antennae.

—Wearing white armbands depicting pickup truck, making the unit highly mobile.

The Air Force uses the unit mounted on an armored personnel carrier. Ninety percent of the two models are interchangeable, making the TRTG an excellent device for joint service tactical operations, officials said here.

An initial survey has shown a potential for 60 to 90 TRTG systems for use by the Army, particularly in training in Europe.

The Air Force has contracted with Emerson for 44 of the units to be installed in personnel carriers. The Strategic Air Command will procure 14 of the units, and the Marine Corps will initially order nine units.

North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries also have shown interest in purchasing the TRTG.

One hundred new jobs have already been created at Emerson by this program and an additional 200 engineering and production jobs are anticipated to support the program.

this year's fair share objective of $750,000.

Gold and silver certificates were awarded to businesses and United Way agencies for outstanding support of the drive and individuals were honored for volunteer services during the campaign.

Group reports were as follows with the percentage of the 1979 objective in parentheses: Special donors, $5,206 (74.3); Professions, $30,309 (69.5); Government Employees, $24,405 (64.7); Business and Commercial, $59,296 (71.8); and Industrial, Construction and Transportation, $314,585 (54.9).

—And on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 15 and 16, turning on vehicle headlights during daylight hours to make the observation. The observance is intended to be non-political, implying neither support for, nor criticism of, American foreign policy.

Teamster President Frank E. Fitzsimmons has called on the more than two million Teamster members and their families to join in the week-long observance.

He commented, "We hope this week will do much to promote patriotism and unity throughout America and encourage support by the government to protect American lives and the sovereignty of American property anywhere in the world.

"The Iranian crisis emphasizes the need for continued prayers for peace in a troubled and complex world."

"While we have had differences with Pres. Carter on some issues, we stand by him in his resolve to peacefully settle this difficult situation with all of its international overtones. And we commend his devotion to seeking a peaceful solution."

"It is unfortunate that often the worst crises bring out the best in Americans, but it is certainly true that the Iranian problem has done much toward uniting Americans."

The Amvets sponsored a "rally around the flag" Sunday afternoon at the Soldiers' Memorial in St. Louis. Speakers included Russell E. Dunham, a World War II combat veteran who holds the Congressional Medal of Honor for bravery.

when the TRTG is put into full production.

In the mid-1970s, the only feasible way available to train crews in the penetration of a low to medium altitude electronic threat was through video equipment and lecture. The aircrew could only be told what to expect, and the first time it would function in an actual electronic warfare environment would be upon entering into real-world combat.

With the development of the TRTG, aircrews are now trained on a combat field, through the use of highly sophisticated electronic simulation. The training gap between real combat situations and schoolroom lectures has been closed.

Helping with the Thursday unveiling ceremony were the members of the Army's 101st Airborne Division.

Visitors to the ceremonies were given the opportunity to observe the TRTG in action as rides in the helicopters were given. Actual combat maneuvers were demonstrated for the press and other interested persons.

Denise Wright, representing the employees of Union Electric Company's Venice plant, reported that a resolution of the plant's work force netted a 62 per cent increase in pledges for a total this year of $5,157—a new record for the plant.

Knecht also noted pledge increases, many up 30 percent or more, and also new businesses and industries that had been solicited for the first time this year.

Several increases of 50 to 60 percent were tallied. Entertainment for the afternoon luncheon was presented by a combined

The TRTG also uses visual contact with the attacking forces, utilizing TV monitors. One monitor is mounted inside the self-contained unit and other monitors can be set up at convenient locations for remote monitoring.

Cost of the initial four TRTG systems produced by Emerson totaled $3,500,000. A contract for the four units was issued in September 1978 by the U. S. Army Aviation Research and Development Command.

When there is full production, cost-per-unit should decrease significantly. Also, the large degree of commonality among the members of the TRTG family to be used by the various branches of the armed services has effectively helped cost savings.

The prototypes have more than proven their invaluable use, amassing more than 2,000 mission hours, those at the demonstration were told.

It is expected that the TRTG will greatly reduce the number of aircraft shot down and the human casualties in real combat situations occur.

choral group of students from Madison Junior and Senior high schools who were presented to the gathering by Willie Walker, executive director of the Madison County Urban League.

The group sang several Christmas carols and ended its program by filing out of the YMCA auditorium singing, "We Wish You A Merry Christmas."

Paul Costello, president of the Tri-Cities Area United Way, reported that the board of directors of the agency will meet on Thursday, Dec. 20, and is hopeful that final pledge reports can be made at that time.

the crime to the police. Mrs. Hausman said the crime of forcible rape increased 200 percent from 1960 to 1974.

"The increase was due to a rise in the crime rate, to more reporting of the crime, and to more press coverage devoted to the crime."

"Rape victims don't always act the way people believe they should act," she said. "Some react by crying; some by laughing."

"Some may be under control. These are usually questioned the most," Mrs. Hausman added.

"The crime lives with the victim long after it is finished. The recovery rate psychologically depends on each victim."

"Some recover in a few days. Some take weeks, months and even years before they are able to deal with the problem."

"The tendency to moralize about rape tends to keep some from effectively helping the victim."

The "send help" signs, a gift from Emil Toffant, sheriff of Madison County, were distributed at the seminar.

Cars hit train, three injured

Three persons were injured at 2:30 a.m. Sunday as two autos struck a Terminal Railroad Association train, between 13th and 14th streets, on Grand Avenue, in Madison.

Jerry M. Harrison, 38, of St. Louis was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 3:10 a.m. Sunday for observation. He was the driver of one of the two cars northbound on Grand Avenue that collided with the train.

Scott William Paulsen, 17, of St. Louis, also driving a northbound auto on Grand Avenue struck the train and was treated and released. Paulsen was causing a traffic citation for careless driving.

Howard Pilgram, 17, of St. Louis, a passenger in one of the autos, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center suffering a fractured right shoulder.

SHED BURNS SUNDAY

Madison firemen answered a call from 2:30 a.m. until 4:05 a.m. Sunday as a shed burned at 1520 rear Fifth St., Madison. No cause was listed as to the fire at the rear of Gonkie's market. No damage estimate was made.

reach $1,200, Sen. Kennedy asserted. Meanwhile, the U. S. Department of Energy on Friday proposed a standby gasoline rationing plan that would divide available supplies among the 50 states in proportion to their past gasoline consumption.

Subject to revision and Congressional review, the plan would be activated by the president if a national gasoline shortage of 20 percent or more lasting 30 days or longer.

A spokesman said a 20 percent general shortfall would mean a cutback of about one-third in the amount of fuel available to the average motorist, since some of the gasoline would first be set aside in state and federal reserves for discretionary distribution to hardship cases, and some would go into extra rations for essential services and certain farming and business requirements.

Ration coupons would be issued for registered vehicles rather than to all licensed drivers, and also in some cases would be issued for unregistered vehicles like tractors and construction equipment.

Public hearings are to be held, and the administration hopes to submit a final version to Congress by Feb. 1.

Contractor defends progress on school

By MICK STRANGE
of the Press-Record

Delay of future construction payments for the new Madison middle school (sixth, seventh and eighth grades) was among possible alternatives discussed at the Thursday evening meeting of the Madison Board of Education.

Members of the board voiced frustration and concern when they were informed through John Patchett, superintendent of schools, that the new school will not be ready for use until Feb. 1 at the earliest.

The board asked that the Illinois Capital Development Board (CDB) in Springfield be contacted and that a request be made that no more funds be paid for the time being.

Madison board members said they would like to see payments halted until all work on the new school is completed and students have been moved in to class.

The CDB board is providing $1,679,925

for the school construction.

Payments are made in direct relation to work completed. However, the Madison board indicated it would like to see an even more restrictive payment policy, since it is disappointed that the building project is not already complete.

It was noted that regular meetings are held between representatives of the CDB and the prime contractor, subcontractors, architect and school administrators.

When contacted Friday, General Contractor Leo Wolf said, "This delay is not mine. I will finish the floors in the gym and then forget it; I will be done."

"They (the CDB and the Madison board) know the problem is with one of the contractors that does not have the equipment to do the job."

"In ten days to two weeks I will be done with it and go over a punch list (check list) with the architect," Architect Henry R. Gabriel said. "The main contractor is responsible for coordinating all the other sub and prime contractors. That is the type of contract with the CDB."

There have been a number of reasons for delays: There were bad winters in 1977 and 1978. There was a delay in getting the roof on; then, when it was put on, the inside was full of snow.

"There was a long period of time when you just could not get bricklayers, and then there was a strike in August 1978."

"A company ordered part of the plumbing late. Even if the gym is finished, the shower equipment is not in."

"There have been just a number of problems, that have compounded the situation," Gabriel said.

In other business, Henry R. Gabriel, architect for the school, said in a letter: "When placing the asphalt paving on Farish street, a large ponding area was created. I feel this was due to the lack of taking grades and providing grade stakes, a standard procedure."

The architect suggested that a new catch basin be installed at the lowest point on Farish Street, a point allegedly created by the asphalt work.

The board felt that a sub-contractor should correct it. Cost of the catch basin was estimated at $1,000.

State tax charge is filed against Elieff

Two Champaign County dentists and the owner of a Madison County bookkeeping firm were charged Thursday by the Illinois Department of Revenue with willful failure to file Illinois income tax returns.

Boris P. Elieff, 57, of 2210 Amos Ave., Granite City, was charged with two counts of failure to file Illinois income tax returns for the years 1977 and 1978, the Illinois Revenue Department said. Elieff, the owner and operator of AAA Bookkeeping Service, 3712 Nameoki Road, Granite

City, had previously been found guilty of willful failure to file Illinois returns for the years 1973, 1974 and 1975, it is alleged.

At that time (November 1977), Sangamon County Circuit Judge Harvey Beam fined Elieff $500 plus court costs, and ordered full restitution to the department. The current investigation determined that the fine and costs were never paid, the Revenue Department said.

Also charged in Sangamon County were two brothers, both dentists, from Champaign. They are James E. Gorman, 45, and Charles M. Gorman, 50. Each is charged with three counts of willful failure to file Illinois income tax returns for the years 1976, 1977 and 1978. Willful failure to file an Illinois income tax return is a class B misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of up to $500 and up to six months in jail for each offense.

Angelo Pizzo, doing business as La Roma Pizzeria, was charged with nine counts of filing fraudulent sales tax returns for the period of April through December 1978, on which taxable sales of approximately $90,000 allegedly were unreported. Pizzo, 51, and his wife, Girolama, were also charged with three counts of perjury on their 1976, 1977 and 1978 income tax returns, on which they allegedly understated their net income by approximately $200,000. He is also charged with one count of failure to keep books and records.

Warrants were issued

Wednesday by Madison County Judge Harold R. Clark for the arrest of the Pizzos. Bond was set at $15,000 each.

The sales tax figures represent only those amounts unreported during the period for which criminal charges were filed against the Pizzos. Taxes due for each additional month going back to early 1976 will be pursued through civil rather than criminal procedures. Filing fraudulent sales tax returns, and failure to keep books and records as required, are class B misdemeanors, which subject a convicted offender to a fine of up to $500 and six months in jail for each offense.

Perjury on an income tax return is a class three felony, punishable by one to 10 years in the penitentiary and a fine of up to $10,000 for each offense.

$159,514 for Cambodia food

The greatest amount of money ever raised through a special collection in the Catholic Diocese of Springfield came in response to a plea by Bishop Joseph A. McNicholas for starving people of Cambodia.

To date, $159,514 has been contributed, with a few parishes still unreported.

The diocese covers a 28-county area throughout central and southern Illinois. The money will be distributed through Catholic Relief Services, the largest private voluntary overseas aid agency in the United States.

In early November, Bishop McNicholas pledged $50,000 to Catholic Relief Services for Cambodia. The public responded with more than three times that amount.

"The generosity of our people to this cause demonstrates a great commitment to the charity of Christ, and reflects how seriously they regard His teaching," the bishop said in announcing the results.

Pontoon Beach Lions 'Give-a-can' drive

The Lions Club of Pontoon Beach announced last week that it will conduct its fourth annual "Give-A-Can" drive on Saturday, Dec. 15, beginning at noon.

The Lions, who will be assisted by the ladies auxiliary Lions Club of Pontoon Beach, will go door to door throughout the village collecting canned goods which will be distributed to needy families at Christmas.

After the canned goods are gathered by the Lions and Lionesses, it will be turned over to the United Way Community Service Center office in Pontoon Beach to be distributed to local needy families in the village and surrounding area.

Last year the Lions collected over 800 cans and the United Way Community Center office distributed food, clothes, and toys for over 25 Pontoon and surrounding needy families.

"Assistance begins at home," Pontoon Beach Lions Club President Dr. George Goodwin said. "And the goal of this service project is to help those in Pontoon Beach and surrounding Nameoki Township areas have a brighter and happier holiday."

The Lions will begin their drive in Lakeview Estates, going to Quiet Valley, John Glenn Meadows, Village Green and ending in Gaslight Walk Apartments.

Persons interested in obtaining information for themselves or would like to recommend a family in need may call the United Way office in Pontoon Beach at 931-2700, Monday through Friday," said President Goodwin.

All information received is kept on a confidential basis. In other business, Thursday evening the club announced that it voted to support a Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce "Send Help" program.

The club voted to contribute $150 toward the cost of printing the bright signs that can be placed in car windows, attracting the attention of passersby.

The program has been organized by the crime prevention committee of the chamber.

The club also voted to donate $1,500 to the Lions of Illinois Foundation which is the statewide organization that supports numerous service programs for the blind and deaf citizens throughout the state.

The service group also announced that it has purchased a U.S. flag and flagpole that will be presented to the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department. The new flag and flagpole will stand at the front entrance of the newly constructed Long Lake Volunteer Fire Station on Pontoon Road.

Cost of the outfit was $130.

Views downtown burglary

Two young men with muscular builds were seen burglarizing Stefanie's clothing store, 19th Street and Edison Avenue, at 2:35 a.m. Monday and then leaving with an undetermined number of leather coats, wool coats and wool suits.

A third person drove the get-away car, which was newer model white over gold or yellow mid-sized car, according to a witness.

A metal milk case was thrown through the glass in the front door. By the time the witness heard the crash and looked toward the store, the two young men were already running out of the store, carrying clothing.

Faces 2 charges

Gary W. Watterson, 21, of 2004 Washington Ave., was arrested at a relative's home in the 2000 block of Washington Avenue at 10:55 p.m. Thursday and was charged with unlawful use of an intoxicating compound and disorderly conduct.

Residents of the home alleged he had been smelling paint thinner in the garage and became loud and started beating on the back door.

When police arrived, he had entered the relative's home and allegedly was in the kitchen holding a plastic bag containing paint thinner. A spray can of paint also was in his pocket, police alleged.

Intelligence is key to success of state champs

Why has the Granite City High School Soccer team won four straight state championships?

Granite City Optimists were told at their Thursday luncheon that it was the intelligence of the players, Gene Baker, the team's coach, said that the top 25 soccer players have a 4.5 grade point average.

Although the athletes are in reasonably good physical condition, "They play with intelligence," Baker emphasized.

The coach said he has tried to teach them to live with defeat, but to play hard. Coach Baker told the Optimists that he feels the program has helped the student players with their attitude and outlook on life in general.

The Optimist Club was divided into two membership teams headed by Alan and Nick Petrelo with regular attenders divided equally.

The team that brings the most inactive Optimist members to the next meeting will be presented an award by William Monical, membership chairman.

The membership committee goal is to increase attendance to 75 percent, and to recruit 36 new members.

Davinroy in Republican Congressional primary

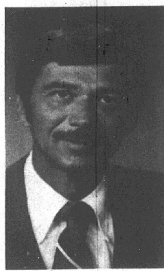

Ronald L. Davinroy has announced his Republican primary candidacy for the U.S. House of Representatives, 23rd District of Illinois.

Davinroy, an engineering graduate from the University of Missouri at Rolla, served two combat tours in Vietnam as a Naval aviator and is sales manager with the U.S. Electrical Motors Division of Emerson Electric Co.

He is 40 years old, a lifelong resident of St. Clair County, and resides with his wife, Kathy, and three children in rural O'Fallon. His reason for entering the Congressional race is his commitment to "returning the principles of constitutional representative government to the people of the 23rd District."

He cites his "first-hand experience with the weak national no-win policies in Vietnam, excessive taxation and government regulation of business and industry, an extensive study of the federal government's liberal establishment failure."

"I am committed to a strong national defense and reestablishing American military superiority; support for the Right to Life amendment; and a large reduction of the federal bureaucracy and government regulations, plus a balanced federal budget.

"I hold big government deficit spending responsible for the major cause of inflation."

"By ending government for the sake of government, we will regain a prosperous and growing economy."

"Working for freedom and Christianity and restoring our national pride are high purposes worthy of my total efforts," he concluded.

Arrest intruder

A 16-year-old Kirkpatrick Homes boy is with juvenile authorities today on charges of criminal trespass to property and curfew violation after he allegedly forced his way into the Kirkpatrick Homes apartment of an elderly couple at 4 a.m. Saturday.

The couple told police the incident was about the sixth in which the same boy has knocked on the apartment door and when the door is answered, he forces his way into the apartment.

Nothing has been taken, the couple told officers, but they said the boy frequently ingests a great number of red or pink pills while he is at their apartment.

Saturday morning, he ate the pills "by the handfuls" while in their apartment according to the couple and when the man attempted to call police, the boy threatened him, officers were told.

State registration by junkyard owners

The Illinois Department of Transportation is reminding prospective junkyard owners that they need to register with the department at the time they apply for their permit from the secretary of state's office.

To be in compliance with state law, it is necessary for anyone planning to start a junkyard to obtain a permit from the Illinois Department of Transportation if any portion of the yard will be within 1000 feet of the nearest edge of highway right-of-way.

In order to obtain a permit, the yard must be either located in an industrial area or be screened so that it is not visible from the highway. "It is also necessary for the prospective operator to obtain a license from the Illinois secretary of state's office."

The applicant will be required to complete an "Application for junkyard or scrap processing facility permit for federal-aid primary or interstate highway" form and submit it to the responsible district office of the Department of Transportation.

There is no charge assessed for the permit or subsequent permit renewal. The permit form may be obtained at any district office or the central office in Springfield.

Permits must also be renewed by the owner by Jan. 1 of each year after their initial issuance.

Each yard will be inspected prior to renewal of the permit to determine if it is still in compliance. If the yard is judged not to be in compliance, the existing permit will become void upon written notification by the department.

Anyone desiring further information may contact the Illinois Department of Transportation's Bureau of Land Acquisition at 217-782-3860.

JAIL TIME ORDERED

David G. Young, 20, of the 5100 block of Old Alton Road, Mitchell, has been sentenced to serve six months in a jail-type facility after pleading guilty to burglary. He allegedly was involved in a June 16 incident in Madison County jurisdiction. Circuit Judge Victor J. Mosele pronounced sentence.

Escorts aiding SIUE students

Working with the University Police, SIUE students are patrolling the Tower Lake housing area and the bicycle trace during the evening and early morning hours. Officer Chuck Heinz is in charge of the patrol and escort service. Chief of Police Charles McDonald said six students are involved in the program, with an average of two to six students on duty each night.

Acting as "ears and eyes" for the police, the students notify university police if a problem develops, and an officer is quickly dispatched to the scene, McDonald said. The students are equipped with portable radios and flashlights.

In addition to patrolling the area, the students act as escorts whenever necessary. The escort service is extended to female students attending late night classes, those attending activities at the Commons Building, and those arriving home late at night.

"If they call or stop by the office on their way home, an escort will be provided," McDonald said.

"Billions of advertising dollars are being spent today based on numbers that are confusing, if not downright wrong. And we're often forgetting the most meaningful number of all, one on one."

LET'S FACE THE FACTS

St. Louis-Based daily newspapers or "throw-aways" don't do the job in the Quad Cities area. They make no attempt to serve advertisers, or the public, the way the PRESS-RECORD has for over 75 years.

We cover the Quad-Cities with 100% Paid Circulation serving 88% of Quad-Cities' residents.

Others may throw figures around, but no one else can honestly provide coverage equal to the Press-Record.

Radio to announce campus closings

All major radio stations in this area will carry announcements of cancellation of classes at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville if weather conditions warrant such a decision.

In addition, the 24-hour answering service of the University Information Center, telephone 692-2739, will have the latest available information on class cancellations.

Generally, weather conditions will not close the university, but classes may be temporarily canceled in severe conditions.

If cancellation of classes or closing of the university is authorized, University News Services will be directed to notify radio stations and the Information Center.

Eighteen stations in Illinois and Missouri will be asked to carry the announcements in addition to WSEF-M (88.7), the campus radio station. Decisions will be made as early as possible and should be aired by 6:30 a.m. for morning classes and by 4 p.m. for evening classes.

Alleviation of pain is a key hospice concept

SIUE Medical School Death is an inevitable fact of life. Yet, just knowing that each of us must die doesn't make the prospect of confronting death any easier.

Medical professionals are now seeking new approaches to help the terminally ill patient cope with death.

One of these approaches is called the hospice.

Statistics show that seventy percent of the people now die in a hospital, sometimes suffering more than they need to because of heroic but fruitless efforts to maintain life.

Of course, medical science is now much more effective. But for many patients there comes a time when it is clear to the physician and family, and often to the patient, that the possibility of cure is no longer realistic.

It is for cases such as this that the hospice program has been developed. A hospice is, essentially, a team of health care professionals—physicians, nurses, social workers and counselors, who are specifically trained to deal with the problems facing the patient who is beyond cure and facing death.

According to Norma Wylie, R.N., a professor within the Department of Medical Humanities at the Southern Illinois University School of Medicine, the control of pain is of utmost importance in helping the terminally ill patient cope with his own impending death.

"It is necessary to understand the total concept of pain," she said. "Pain is not purely physical. It has emotional and spiritual aspects, too."

"The control of pain depends on the effective use of narcotics together with a combination of medications and psychological support that relieve the emotional hurts as well."

"Control of pain," she continued, "puts the dying patient more in control of himself so that greater emphasis can be placed on what living the patient has left to do."

She is careful to point out that the hospice philosophy is not one of a utopia which promises a "beautiful death" for everybody. A hospice is designed simply to help the individual and his family during the final days of his life.

To accomplish this, carefully selected and properly trained staff members are essential.

"Most often," she says, "the terminally ill just need someone to listen. The dying often say that they are not afraid of death, but that they are afraid of being alone."

"The hospice staff have to be people who will say, 'I will not leave you alone.' They need to be people who are not uncomfortable with this."

"Several hospices in the United States are entirely home care programs. They have no hospital beds, and most of the care is given in the home. This reflects the fact that the most important part of hospice care is the team of people providing the service."

The hospice program also deals with the grief and bereavement of those left behind by following up on the family and mourners.

"Specialized hospice teams or units are one way of coping with the problem of caring for the dying patient and his family, but they are not necessarily the best way. Many physicians and hospitals are caring for the dying excellently without any special units."

"But because of the many advances in terminal care which are being used at hospices, they may provide an educational opportunity for future health care professionals, so that the care of the dying can be improved."

"Death is and always will be grim. But perhaps with a hospice team and application of modern concepts in care of the dying, more of us can die with a sense of personal worth."

Protection tips against severe winter conditions

Severe winter weather during the last decade has been responsible for countless deaths and millions of dollars of physical and economic damage.

To help prepare for severe weather conditions this winter, the Public Welfare Committee, Tony Bosich, Rod Bauder and Richard Worthen, of the Madison County Emergency Services and Disaster Agency (ESDA) recommends the following tips:

Homes—Businesses:

1. Ensure that battery operated equipment is fully operational. Communications equipment (radios) provides vital information.
2. Check your supply of heating fuel. Those homes or businesses using fuel should arrange for an adequate supply prior to a storm's arrival or extremely cold temperatures.
3. Check your food supply to ensure adequate emergency provisions.
4. Prevent hazards due to overheated coal or oil burning stoves, fireplaces or heaters.
5. Make provisions for the effect of extremely cold temperatures on pipes.
6. Be careful shoveling snow. Many deaths occur to overexertion.

Dress:

1. If outside, wear several layers of light, loose fitting clothes, to prevent perspiration.

spiraling and subsequent chilling. Protect all extremities (face and hands) from bitter cold or extended exposure. Many people have frozen to death due to exposure.

Vehicle travel:

Have your car winterized before winter storms strike. Check your battery, exhaust system, tires and oil level. It is very important to carry blankets, flares, matches, candles, first aid kit, flashlight, and other items. Hundreds of motorists are stranded each year and some die. Keep the following points in mind if you must travel:

1. If the storm exceeds your limitations, seek refuge immediately.
2. Use primary routes.
3. Don't travel alone.
4. Fill tank before driving and keep relatively full. If stranded, your vehicles fuel may keep you alive.
5. If trapped in vehicle during blizzard:
 1. Stay in vehicle. Do not attempt to walk out in a blizzard if help is not immediately available.
 2. Disorientation comes quickly in drifting and blowing snow and being lost can be certain death. You can be found easier in your car.
 3. Prevent carbon monoxide poisoning. Run the motor and heater sparingly.
 4. Exercise by clapping.

hands, and moving arms and legs vigorously. Do not remain in one position too long.

4. Turn on dome light if possible. This may alert highway or rescue crews.

5. Keep watch. Do not permit all occupants to sleep at once.

Candidate filing 'active' today

A "long line" of candidates filing petitions for the March 8, 1980, primary election was reported at the office of Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles this morning as the first day for filing opened.

At 9:30 a.m. today, one-half hour after the office opened, candidates who had filed on the Democratic ticket for re-election included State's Attorney Nicholas G. Byron and Circuit Clerk Willard V. "Butch" Porcell.

Opponents who filed against them included David Knoblauch of Wood River for circuit clerk and Richard "Dick" Allen of Granite City for state's attorney.

Also among those who filed in the first half-hour was Arthur "Pete" Fields of Glen Carbon, a former Venice resident, who filed for the Democratic nomination for county auditor.

County Clerk Evelyn Bowles said she had not seen everyone in the line, but the number of candidates filing for county board seats seemed to be small.

Later this morning, incumbent Coroner Dallas Burke and County Recorder of Deeds Ronald "Rink" Lucas filed for re-election on the Democratic ticket, Miss Bowles said.

Also having filed this morning in Springfield were State Rep. Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) and State Rep. Jim McPike (D-Alton), both seeking re-election, sources said, adding that no opposition candidates for state representative had filed in the first half-hour.

New engineer sought

The board of trustees of the Metro-East Sanitary District voted in a meeting Friday to advertise for a new executive director, but admit they don't know when they will be able to pay him the $24,000 he is supposed to receive.

Under new law setting up the sanitary district when it replaced the old City of Levee and Sanitary district, it was provided the district was to be operated by an executive director rather than the board of trustees.

Because of subsequent politics and financial difficulties, the district's first director, A. Wendell Wheadon, was dismissed last June.

The district board since has not appointed a replacement.

The district has been without funds on several occasions has been unable to meet regular payrolls.

None of the commissioners qualify for the post of director who must have an engineering degree, five years experience and be a licensed professional engineer.

TOOLS ARE STOLEN

A tray containing hand tools valued at more than $200 was stolen from the garage of Howard Vallow, 1712 Second St., Madison, it was discovered at 11:35 p.m. Saturday.

Ends 51 years as nurse here

For 51 years, Roberta Pinley Gerke did the same thing—up in the morning by 5, dressed in nursing clothes by 6, and on duty by 6:45.

But that is all changed now. After 51 years as a nurse (with St. Elizabeth Medical Center 1965), she has chosen to take retirement. But the legend she is to SEMC will always remain, hospital officials say.

"When I first met her, it wasn't the first time I heard of her," said 5 Doctors Unit Manager Peggy Gaudreault. She has worked with her for more than 20 years.

"When you did something wrong, you heard about it, but in a gracious way," she added.

Although Roberta Gerke has only been with SEMC steadily since 1965, she is a lifetime veteran of St. Elizabeth's health care policies. She enrolled at the St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing in 1928 and learned a philosophy that was to rule her career's success in the years to come.

Last year, when she received her 50-year award for nursing, she revealed that philosophy: "On my first day of nurses' training, Sister Pachomia and Sister Paschal told me that the patient always comes first. I have never forgotten that."

During her three years in training, she worked and studied for 12 hours a day and received $11 per month for that work.

She was employed by the St. Elizabeth Hospital X-ray Department after graduation in 1931. For her work, she received room and board and 50 cents an hour.

"She took the first x-ray here," Peggy Gaudreault boasted about her boss.

Mrs. Gerke left St. Elizabeth in 1935 to work for a local physician, Dr. E. M. Aronovitz, and remained in his employ for more than 23 years. He taught her another key to success—organization.

"She loved organization," said Peggy Gaudreault. She added that her boss used to boast she was able to find an instrument in the dark in the doctor's examining rooms, because he taught her there was a place for everything.

Upon Dr. Aronovitz's death, she went to work for Dr. Robert Hill and stayed with him until 1965, when she returned to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

She worked on the first floor but soon was put in charge of the 5th and 6th floors. She was loved and respected by all her employees, and she ruled those floors with love and discipline, the officials say. "She was strict, but I found that great. This is the kind of place that it's needed," said Gale Kinfle, 6 Doctor unit manager.

Several Depot plans studied

Several different alternatives for industrial park development were reviewed at a meeting Saturday.

The site is a surplus 276-acre tract at the southeastern corner of the Granite City Army Installation. Those meeting were mayors and attorneys from the cities of Granite City, Venice and Madison, and Tri-City Regional Port District board members and administrators.

Facing a Dec. 14 deadline set by the federal government for selection of which of the local agencies will proceed with the project, those meeting Saturday decided to meet again this week.

Several alternatives were discussed in detail, and a participant in the meeting said the proposals merit further study and discussion. No decisions were reached, but the various approaches were described as realistic and specific.

Meet on needs of the elderly

Increasing urban violence and a rising crime rate, the effects of inflation on a fixed income, rising costs for health care—these and other topics that concern older persons will be aired Thursday at 201 N. Church, Belleville.

The 2 p.m. meeting, a dialogue with Mary Pipher, of the Illinois Department of Aging, will give an opportunity to voice concerns for the aged. Issues raised will become part of the considerations at the National White House Conference on Aging in Washington, D.C., in 1981.

Housing, transportation, medical services, nutrition, rural services and income maintenance are on the list of likely topics.

Members of the Speak Out Committee are Larry Miller, Bob Slackman, Leona Menestrina, Ray Uphoff, Evelyn Bachman, Vernice Walters and Vi Berthold.

Further information concerning the meeting may be obtained from Anne M. Smith at the Belleville Area College Programs and Services for the Elderly, Center at 201 N. Church or by telephone at 234-4410.

Two fights at tavern

Madison County sheriff's deputies are investigating two incidents involving weapons at the Curve Inn, 2618 Missouri Ave., Sunday.

In the first incident, at 2:45 a.m. Sunday, Bobby Hayes, who resides above the Curve Inn, said he was in the tavern and a patron told him he and a friend were going to wait until Hayes left the tavern, and then kill him.

The man showed him a gun, Hayes said. Hayes remained in the tavern until deputies arrived. Two men were questioned and searched, but no weapons were found, so there were no arrests.

At 8:25 p.m. Sunday, Hayes was assaulted in the tavern by two men, allegedly the same two involved in the earlier incident.

Hayes said he was playing pool when one man jumped from a bar stool on top of him and beat him with fists, causing cuts and swelling to Hayes' face.

About the same time, another man at the bar jumped at Debby Tomlin, Edwardsville, striking her mouth with a fist once. He then allegedly broke a beer bottle and threatened to cut her throat with the broken bottle.

Patrons halted both fights and the two men who allegedly caused them left the tavern.

Deputies said they plan to apply today for warrants against the two men.

Allen ending defender duties

Dick Allen, in filing his petitions for nomination to state's attorney today, said he is resigning his position of assistant public defender of Madison County.

In making the announcement, Allen said, "I have enjoyed my work with the public defender's office since 1972, representing clients in hundreds of cases, counting both felony and misdemeanor dockets."

"At this time, however, I deem it appropriate to resign from that office to avoid any hint of conflict of interest or legal impropriety between the offices of the public defender and the state's attorney."

"We are phasing out the felony cases I am handling, and it is expected I will be able to complete all of my assignments by Dec. 31."

REBOUND FIGHT. Venice's Donald Gardner is sandwiched in between two Madison Trojans Friday night.

Trojans hold off Venice

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record

MADISON — Ken Perkins, coach of the Venice Red Devil basketball team, convinced nobody.

His team had just lost to the Madison Trojans, 76-65, but if he was trying to act the part of the somber loser, nobody was fooled.

The twinkle in his eye, the smile that he held back — that told the story.

Sure, Venice lost. But five points, five measly points. Some things just aren't indicated on the scoreboard.

Intensity, for instance. The action on the Madison high court was back and forth so fast spectators' heads swiveling like they were watching a tennis match.

Or rivalry. The series of games between these neighboring schools is long and meaningful to the participants.

But maybe the most important thing missing from a mere glance at the final score is the thing that put the smile behind Perkins' eyes.

"We're going to be there," Perkins said. "By golly, we're going to be right there."

"There" means competitive. Something Venice wasn't too sure about before the Devils played the Trojans so close.

It took maybe two minutes to figure out just exactly how the game would go.

After that long, both teams had been up and down the court a couple of times, and the pace that was set was frantic.

There were 11 turnovers in the first quarter. Both teams established clearly that they intended to run, run, run.

At the end of the first quarter Venice led 17-16.

"We wanted to try to run on them, and get behind them," Perkins said. "I've seen teams do that to them. We wanted to say, 'Hey, we're coming at you.'"

Madison coach Larry Graham heard the message. "We expected them to do pretty much what they did. Nobody else may have. We made a lot of mistakes. But we gave them credit. We had problems getting back with them on defense."

Notice was given. Even with the reputation for running opponents into the ground that Madison enjoys, the Trojans just couldn't shake the Red Devils.

In addition to matching the Trojans' running game, Venice began in the second quarter to take control of the play under the basket.

"They outgassed us inside for rebounds," Graham said. "We're basically an inside team. If (Pat) Hatter and (Charles) Claggett hadn't been hitting we'd have been hurting."

Claggett and Hatter were the pair of guards to whom Madison relied on to hold off the charging Devils.

Their outside shooting allowed the Trojans to take a 33-31 halftime lead.

Venice kept the Trojans outside mainly through the efforts of Donald Gardner, whose offensive production matched his defensive performance.

The Madison counterpart of Gardner, though, remained on the bench.

Trojan Morris Hughes, who on more than one occasion has led Madison in scoring was sidelined with an injured toe. "We missed him rebounding," Graham said. "He was available, but we kept him on the bench as sort of a psych thing."

"He wouldn't have hurt us," Perkins said. "They didn't get inside. They hurt us with their outside shooting."

Madison began to pull away late in the third quarter. The increasing accuracy of the Trojan guards began to open up the score.

At the end of the third period Madison led by six.

Venice kept up the pressure, but Madison held on to a four to six point lead throughout the final period.

"What can you do when they shoot like that?"

Perkins said about the Trojans' long-ball barrage. "When they're throwing them in from thirty feet not much."

With a little over two minutes left in the game, the Devils cut the score to four points.

But Madison, working on the clock, eluded any easily turnovers that would have allowed Venice to come back quickly.

Venice was forced to go for the ball, which resulted in sending the Trojans to the foul line.

That ended it.

"We played as good a game as we were capable of playing tonight," Perkins said. "They just beat us."

At least that's what the scoreboard said.

Warriors thrash Crusaders

BELLEVILLE — Granite City South's basketball schedule may have been most responsible for the team's 76-49 win over Althoff, Friday.

Althoff, which finished last season with a 1-25 record and which is 0-2 this year, provided the Warriors a minimum of opposition.

According to South coach Don Deterding, that's just what his team needed.

"It was a ragged game," Deterding said. "Any team that can put on any pressure is going to do it against us. They just didn't have the aggressiveness. Still, we did not play well."

Evidence for that statement — four Warrior starters fouled out.

Against a team that neither runs nor guards that's not a good sign.

The Warriors dominated because they simply better suited physically. Althoff couldn't overcome South's experience and height advantage.

With that advantage the Warriors positioned themselves underneath the basket and worked almost unhampered from that position all night.

South collected 33 rebounds to Althoff's 21, and scored lay ups consistently.

Kevin Greene and Jamie Blasingame, South's front court men, led the Warriors with 17 and 16 points respectively. Guard Lee Huebner added 14 more.

All three played less than three quarters, as they left the game early after being called for five fouls.

What they did before they left made the difference though. The closest Althoff came in the game was an early 8-5 deficit.

The Warriors scored 11 straight points after that and went on to take a 22-8 lead at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Althoff was forced to try to cut into the Warrior lead from the fringes of the South defense.

The Crusaders' Matt Hardin put together a couple of strings of baskets, but when Althoff went inside the Warriors mostly closed them off.

The half ended with the Warriors ahead 41-22.

Hardin provided a Crusader flourish early in the third period, sinking two consecutive long shots, and adding a free throw. But the brief spur brought Althoff only to within 41-27.

South took a 68-57 lead into the final period.

Tigers poor house guests

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — It wasn't exactly a happy homecoming for the Granite City North basketball team here Friday night. But for a while, it was interesting.

North's Steelers opened their 1979-1980 home season with their first game ever on the North campus and dropped a 77-60 Gateway

East Conference decision to Edwardsville in a jam-packed North gymnasium.

Using superior height, Edwardsville's Tigers were down the scrappy Steelers who, in an effort to get the ball, had to resort to fouling. It cost them.

Four of North's starting five — Bob Batey, Mike York, Greg Faulkner, and Mike Robertson — fouled out. North was whittled for 23 personal fouls in all, Edwardsville for 14.

"You can't help but foul when you're at such a height disadvantage," said North head coach Bill Ohlendorf. "There really wasn't anything else to do."

North's Dennis Page paced the Steelers' effort at staying within striking range with 24 points. In fact, North managed to make it close until the fouls began catching up with them.

Edwardsville jumped out to a 17-8 lead at the end of the first quarter, but the feisty Steelers weren't about to lay down.

North outscored Edwardsville 24-22 in the second period to make it five point halftime deficit. But the Tigers edged away late in the third quarter and in the fourth to gain the victory.

Besides Page's scoring effort, the only other Steelers in double figures were Robertson and York with 14. No other North player had more than two points.

On the other hand, Edwardsville, while it did depend on three players for the bulk of its scoring, got a little more punch up and down the lineup. Tom Hanson scored 18 and Dan Allaria 16 for Edwardsville. Tom McDonald added 14.

The victory raised Edwardsville's overall record to 1-1, while North's East Conference record to 2-0. North dropped to 0-1 in conference action.

The closest North got in the second half was five points at 45-40 with 3:59 remaining in the third quarter. But Edwardsville reeled off six unanswered points and never looked back.

Saturday night, Edwardsville raised its record to 4-0 when it defeated Hillsboro 67-59 at home. In that game, McDonald, Allaria and Hanson combined for 45 points.

Althoff cagers hope grid tradition carries

BELLEVILLE — Belleville Althoff's recent crowning as Gateway East Conference Football champion may have tickled most of that school, but Althoff may not be so pleased.

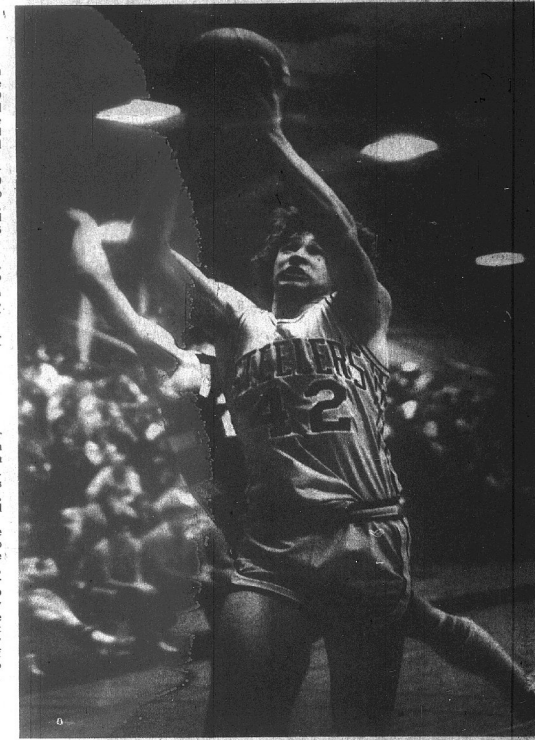

Foppe is the head basketball coach at Althoff, and the conference crown meant that he could only sit and wait as four of the starters on his Crusader squad bustled themselves with post-season football while valuable pre-season basketball time rapidly went idle.

Andrews named to golf elite

GRANITE CITY — Granite City North golfer Chris Andrews has been named to the All-Area first team by the area's high school golf coaches.

Andrews, a senior at North, led the Steelers all season. He finished fourth at the District meet and advanced to the Sectional at Rend Lake.

Other members of the first team are: Jerry Haas, Belleville West; Randy Harris, Belleville East; Mike Tinsel and Brad Clark, O'Fallon; Scott Porter, Red Bud; Tom Malench, Edwardsville; and Dan Polites, Belleville Althoff.

BELLEVILLE — Belleville Area College coach Jay Harrington has announced the indefinite suspension of three basketball players. Tony Noble, Richard Wilson, and Danny Guess have been suspended for what Harrington calls "failure to live up to the standards of citizenship." I require my players...

Warrior grapplers are still unbeaten

By DOUG IRVIN
for the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — South's junior Greg Garland seemed to lead the Warriors to four victories over the weekend with four pins in his 112 weight class matches. The Warriors beat Centralia 54-9
Friday night at South, and Saturday, the Granite boys beat East St. Louis 60-0,
Springfield 48-5 and Urbana
40-11.

With those wins, Granite is 7-0 with just three more dual meets remaining on their schedule before the Holiday Tournament, Dec. 27-28.

SOUTH 54

CENTRALIA 9
Two hundred and twenty pound junior Bruce Monahan of South really gave the crowd their money's worth.
Monahan wrestled Centralia's 395 pound heavyweight, Rodd Hill, a sophomore.

The two heavies locked up and Monahan threw Hill for the original takedown which the Granite fans accepted excitedly. Monahan then pinned the heavier grappler
at the 1:07 mark.

Monahan's fall made seven for the Warriors all day against the Orphans.
Chris Cottrell stuck Scott
Dillon at 54 in the 96 pound competition. At 105, Rick Presswood pinned Mark
Lindenberg in 3:37 and

Garland did in Earl Whitelow at the 3:03 mark with a cradle. Garland almost locked up a gillotine, but Whitelow managed to escape from that move.

Randy Lupardus, at 126, beat Tom Florini by a fall at the 4:23 mark. Dean Perkins ended his 145 pound match against Mark Shaw at 3:47. The Warriors' other pin came from their 167 pounder,
Scott Polson, who stuck
Craig Driggers in 4:17.

Other Warrior wins were:
Phil Beljanski, at 132, 14-0
over Scott Rolf; Tom
McElroy, at 138, 12-1 over
Conrad Smith; and Rich
James, at 185, 6-0 over
Charles Cook. At 119, Eric
Foltz of Centralia pinned
Paul Willis and at 155, Orphan Dave Clifton
decisioned Drew Clement, 10-4.

SOUTH 60

EAST ST. LOUIS 0
Granite wrestled the Flyers first at Springfield in the triple dual. South's only lineup change was Jim Fangoulis instead of Polson at 167.

Cottrell at 98 decisioned
Luther Skinner, 17-2;
Presswood beat Tyrone
Clark, 14-0 in the 105 pound competition. At 112, Garland pinned Wesley Joshyway in 31 seconds.

Willis stuck Jacob Lovless
in 1:45 and Lupardus

pinned Major Bell in 4:49 at
126. Beljanski decisioned
Ken Bennet, 10-3, in the 132 pound division.
McElroy won by a fall over
John Moore at the 4:31 mark in the 138 pound bout and Perkins, 14-5, pinned Gary Joshway, 3:52. At 155,
Clement beat Ives Gilmore,
12-5.

Fangoulis pinned Carl Evans in 4:45 in the 167 pound class. James beat Ralph Wilson 7-6 in the 185 pound competition, and Monahan at heavyweight
stuck Brian Watson, 3:55.

SPRINGFIELD 48

Again the Warriors dominated their opponents and again Garland had another sub-60 pin. South stuck three, won ten, lost one, and tied one.

Garland at 112 stuck John Sommerhof in 39 seconds and at 126, Lupardus pinned
Tom Davidson, 1:40.

Monahan, at heavyweight,
won by a fall over Dan Coffee
at the 5:25 mark.
Cottrell, 98, beat John
Suter, 14-4; Presswood, 105, won by default over Brian Herrick; Willis, 119, decisioned Dan Curley 9-5;
and at 132, Beljanski beat
John Brodland 13-0.

McElroy beat Shawn
Reynolds, 7-4, in their 138
pound bout; Perkins, 145, decisioned Marty Grivee 10-

3. James decisioned Greg Tucker 9-0 at 185.
Fangoulis drew with Rick Glisson, 6-6, at 187. And Clement bowed to Chris
Grant at 155, 3-0.

SOUTH 40

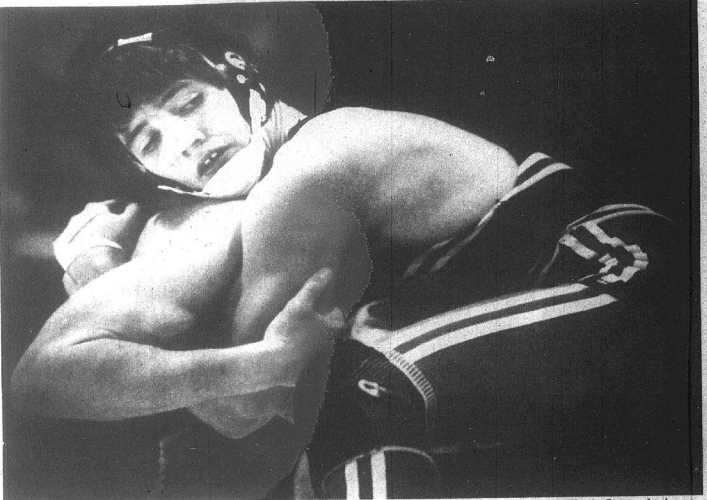

URBANA 11
Urbana scored the most points against South on the weekend, but they didn't tally enough as the Warrior machine kept right on churning. South pinned four Urbana wrestlers.

Presswood, 105, stopped the clock at the one minute
mark with a pin over Jerome
Wells. Garland, again, pinned his grappling opponent. This time, he took 5:23 to do away with Chris Speano at 112.

At 132, Beljanski stuck Jeff McCrackin, 1:25; and Fangoulis, 167, pinned Mike
Susek at 5:15.

At 98, Cottrell decisioned Mike Arnold 17-7. Lupardus, 126, beat Matt Carey 12-9;
and Perkins, 145, won 10-3 against Dan Barbee. James, 185, decisioned Tom Koer-ke, 14-5.

Clement wrestled to a 5-5 draw at 155 against Kevin Bligh. At 119, Steve Johnston of Urbana beat Willis, 9-6;
and Jeff Valentine beat heavyweight Monahan 9-7.

Steeler wrestlers take two of three

Special to the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — The
Granite City North wrestling
Stealers ran into the Belleville West buzz-saw here Saturday, taking a dual meet decision on the chin 30-20.

The dual with West was one of the three Stealers had.
The other two were much easier, with North dominating Edwardsville 41-12 and whipping hapless Collinsville 52-6. In the other dual results, West beat Collinsville 64-6 and Edwardsville 60-3, while
Edwardsville was beating Collinsville 42-17. The narrow win for West over

North was its third in a row without a loss over the last three seasons. This season the Maroons are 5-0. North is 4-1.

North jumped out to an early lead in the lower weight divisions, winning four of the first five bouts for a 14-3 lead. But the upper weights couldn't hold on.

West won six of the last seven bouts to edge away with the win.
At 98 pounds, North's Mike
Robinson beat Partelow 12-2.

At 105, Steve Smith pinned
West's Kurtz in 3:52. North's
Gerald Miller decisioned
Erhardt 4-0.

North's Tracy Patton was edged by West's Harris at 119 pounds, 9-6 on a last second reversal. At 126, Bob Kiran beat West's Gausch

10-2.

West dominated the rest of the match, however. Steeler heavyweight Tim Wyrostek was the only North grappler to win a remaining bout
when he beat Summers 6-4.

In North's win over Edwardsville, Steeler
winners included Robinson,
Smith, Miller, Patton,
Kiran, Kevin Shemwell,
Scott Corey and Bill Zimmer. Wyrostek fought to a draw in his match.

Against Collinsville, North
winners were Robins on,
Miller, Patton, Kirgan,
Thompson, Steve Gibson,

Corey, John Morris and Owens. Wyrostek, Smith and Zimmer fought to ties in their bouts.

Against Collinsville, five of the Stealers' eight wins were by falls.

North's next action will be Tuesday at home against Parkway North with junior varsity and varsity matches.
Action will get underway at 6:30 p.m.

Jimmy, Ted call Chris

When a presidential primary race is in progress, and you happen to be chairman of the Democratic party in your county, the state of your health is a subject of major import in Washington, D. C. Chris Costoff has found.

Ill recently and treated at Deaconess Hospital, St. Louis, Madison County Democratic Chairman Costoff of Madison has since returned to his home.

On Thursday evening, about 10, he received a call from none other than President Jimmy Carter, who wished him a speedy return to good health.

More long, the telephone had rung again and Costoff was talking to Senator Edward "Ted" Kennedy, regarded as Pres. Carter's chief rival for the 1980 nomination. The senator, not surprisingly, also wished the Madisonian well.

Not mentioned during the calls was that some politicians believe the outcome of the March primary election in Illinois may prove pivotal in providing national momentum for either the Carter or the Kennedy campaign.

Drives through yards; arrested

Ricky N. Hall, 23, of 3001 Ramona Drive, was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol and reckless driving after his car allegedly went through three yards, hitting a tree and a limb on another tree in the 3000 block of Wayne Avenue at 2:20 a.m. Saturday.

Officers were told the auto left the roadway at the home of Alice Price, 3027 Wayne Ave., and struck a tree, then continued through the front yard of William Hood, 3025 Wayne and into the yard of Paul Costello, 3021 Wayne, where it hit the branch from another tree before continuing south on Wayne Avenue.

Police followed a trail of water and oil on Wayne to Faith Avenue, then to Sunset Avenue and onto Ramona Drive, where Hall's damaged car was found in the driveway of his home, officer said.

Hall was arrested and was released after posting $100 cash bond.

Arrest 3 teens

Mike Yarbrough, 17, of 8 Lilly Ave., Emmet King, 17, of 2 Petunia Ave., and a 16-year-old boy, all of Pontoon Beach, were arrested on Nameki Road near Co-op Records at 12:40 a.m. Saturday and were charged with being minors in possession of alcohol. The juvenile boy also was charged with a curfew violation.

Police were told that teens in a pickup truck had been seen drinking beer in the lot of a Nameki Road fast-food restaurant and officers searched for the truck, stopping it on Nameki Road. Three teens in the back of the truck jumped out and ran, eluding officers.

Officers alleged finding open beer in the truck and arrested Yarbrough, who was driving, and King, who was a passenger.

They were locked in the back of a squad car and while officers were directing traffic, one of the boys who allegedly jumped from the back of the truck earlier returned to the scene and attempted to let the two out of the squad car.

He was stopped and arrested. King and Yarbrough were released on $35 cash bond and the juvenile's parents posted $80 for his release.

Insuring a home for ice and snow storms

Illinois Insurance Information Service
Hundreds of Illinois homeowners learned too late last winter that their insurance did not cover — or covered inadequately — the damage done to their houses by those devastating snow storms.

It was only after the first signs of water seepage appeared or after a porch or garage roof collapsed that some homeowners checked out their insurance policies. So this winter, before the storms hit us in earnest, the Illinois Insurance Information Service urges homeowners to put insurance high on that last-minute winter checklist, along with heating systems, storm windows, weather stripping and gutters.

If your house was damaged by last winter's record snow, you already know whether your insurance coverage was adequate. If it wasn't, you've probably taken steps to see that it is.

But to those whose houses escaped last winter's fury, the IIS suggests that you ask yourself three questions:

1. Does your present policy cover damage to your house caused by the weight of ice, snow or sleet (a collapsed roof, for example)?

2. Does it cover damage to your house caused by water seepage resulting from that ice, snow or sleet?

3. If it covers those perils, does it cover them adequately — do you have enough insurance to pay for possible storm damage to your house?

To get quick answers to the first two questions, take a look at your policy to see whether it's a Homeowners 1, 2 or 3 (HO-1, HO-2, HO-3). Some companies may call them Forms 1, 2 or 3, or refer to HO-1 as a "basic" policy, HO-2 as a "broad" or "standard" policy, and HO-3 as a "special" or "deluxe" policy.

And some companies may also offer an HO-3 policy which provides additional coverage for personal property.

There also is an HO-4 policy which is for renters. And there is an HO-6 for condominium owners. Both of these cover contents only.

If you have an HO-3 or an HO-5 policy, you are covered for damage to your house caused by the weight of ice, snow, or sleet and also by water seepage resulting from that ice, snow or sleet.

But if you have an HO-2 policy, you are covered only for damage caused by the weight of the ice, snow and sleet and not the water seepage.

As for the HO-1 policy, it covers neither damage caused by the weight of ice, snow or sleet nor any resulting water seepage.

Now to the question of whether you are adequately covered.

Even if your policy covers snow-related damage, it may not provide enough coverage to pay for that damage. The adequacy of that coverage is tied directly to the amount of insurance you have on your house, it says.

If your house is not covered for at least 80 percent of its current replacement cost, you won't get full payment for the damages. Instead, your insurance company will pay you only what the damaged part of the house is worth, taking depreciation into account.

Thus, if your roof collapsed, you'd get only what the roof was actually worth at the time it fell — that is, the replacement cost minus depreciation.

Most insurance companies, by the way, recommend that homeowners insure their homes for an amount equal to 100 percent of the current replacement cost. The critical word here is "current."

"Many policyholders find they are underinsured simply because they did not increase the amount of their homeowners insurance to keep pace with inflation," said a spokesman for the IIS.

"If your house has increased in value over the years — as it undoubtedly has — your homeowners insurance should reflect that increase."

"Or, to put it another way, since it would cost more to replace your house today than, say, five or ten years ago, your homeowners insurance should reflect that new replacement cost."

"That's why insurance companies and insurance agents urge their customers to review their homeowners insurance regularly to make certain their coverage realistically reflects the value of their homes. Some companies even offer policies that automatically build-in inflation protection."

"Again, before winter overwhelms us, we remind homeowners to make certain, first, that their insurance covers their houses for possible storm damage, and, finally, that it is adequate."

Annual bird count Dec. 15

The Quad-City area, including Horseshoe Lake, will be part of the annual Christmas Bird Count, which will include 1,300 such counts from Hawaii to Labrador and from Alaska to Venezuela during the period Dec. 15 to Jan. 1.

This year marks the 80th anniversary of the original Christmas Bird Count, taken on Christmas Day, 1899, by a group of stroller in 25 locations, mostly around major northeastern cities. Since then the annual event has grown from its original 25 to its present 1,300, and the total participants from 27 to an estimated 31,000.

This year every Canadian province, every American state, many Central American countries, and numerous West Indies islands will submit their results to the National Audubon Society, which supervises the affair, and publishes all the counts in its journal, American Birds.

Air Products to expand

Air Products and Chemicals, Inc. has begun expansion of its industrial gas plant to meet the increasing demands for oxygen and nitrogen of Granite City Steel, a division of National Steel Corporation.

Air Products currently operates two air separation plants on the site, as well as three steam reformers to produce hydrogen for annealing processes. A new 700 ton-per-day plant will be added to the complex to provide oxygen and nitrogen for use in steel and iron production, and for general plant applications. In addition to the gaseous unit, a 300 ton-per-day liquefier will be included in the facility to produce liquid oxygen, nitrogen, and argon for the merchant market. An argon purification unit, also part of the new facility, will be used to refine crude argon from the liquefier.

Liquid oxygen, nitrogen, and argon are used in food freezing, metal working, welding, chemicals, plastics, electronics, and other applications.

Air Products will also supply equipment to provide nitrogen for use as an inert atmosphere in the steelwork's new OBM-S vessels.

When on stream, the newly expanded facility will provide 1,100 tons per day of gaseous oxygen to Granite City Steel and 400 tons per day of liquid product to merchant customers.

Air Products, headquartered in Allentown, Pa., has over 14,000 employees worldwide. The company has 80 employees at the Granite City site.

$391 million state balance

Advance payments to Illinois school districts in November put an artificial $391 million "dent" in the end-of-the-month available balance in the state's general funds, State Comptroller Roland W. Burris reports.

The available balance in general funds on Nov. 30 was $391 million, a drop of $159 million from the balance a month earlier on October 30. Despite the substantial size of the school payments, the $391 million end-of-November balance is still $187 million higher than the state had in its general funds one year ago, Comptroller Burris said.

He said the general funds should bounce back to more than $500 million at the end of December, unless additional advance payments are authorized. Burris noted that because of the advance payments, the state won't be making its normal aid payment to the schools in December. Total general revenues in the first five months of fiscal 1979-80 were $3,026,000,000, which is $319 million or 11.8 percent more than the same period last year.

SOLAR ENERGY plus Electricity produce low-cost grain drying on this Illinois farm

Steve Funk with the solar heat collector he built on the South side of his home.

Steve Funk found a way to combine electric and solar energy to cut costs and increase efficiency on his 432-acre farm near Bloomington. He uses the electric/solar energy combination for grain drying and home heating.

Working with representatives of the University of Illinois, Mr.

Funk developed a system using an electric fan to circulate air through bins covered with solar heat collectors. For comparison, Mr. Funk used a continuous-flow fossil fuel dryer the same season. It cost less to dry with an electric fan and solar heat.

Mr. Funk has also used solar energy plus an electric fan for home heating since 1976. With added insulation, the solar heat system cut his fuel oil bills by as much as 50% in one year.

For more information about solar energy, contact your energy use advisor. Or write to the Farm Service Department, Illinois Power, Decatur, Illinois 62525.

Zoning group meets Wednesday

The Granite City Board of Appeals will meet at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 12, to consider two zoning requests.

William Hayes, 1550 St. Clair Ave., is seeking endorsement of a garage he constructed 1.5 feet from the property line after the city issued him a building permit. Later, officials objected he had not received a variance from the set-back requirements. Hayes said the city failed to notify him a variance was required when he applied for the building permit. The case is now in court.

The other request to be studied by the board is from Mary Lou Carroll, who seeks permission to place two mobile homes on two lots at 2223 E. 23rd St.

Reasonable horse race betting tax key to bus subsidy

How to achieve local contributions to assure continued bus service in Madison and St. Clair counties?

Perhaps the best plan was voiced Thursday afternoon by William J. Wilson, Bi-State Development Agency regional manager. He discussed the possibility of a tax on bets placed at Fairmount Park and Cahokia Downs horse races.

Possible alternatives to a bus tax on racing were listed as:

—Adding a half-cent per dollar to the sales tax in Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties, to raise an estimated $1 million a year.

—Placing a $3 surcharge on vehicle licenses in the three counties, producing $1,200,000.

—Or levying a two cents a pack tax on cigarettes, raising $1,500,000.

A drawback of the race track tax described by Wilson is that collecting to cents for each $2 bet might generate $5,200,000 annually, compared to the $1 million objective set by Illinois legislators as a supplement to the state's transit system subsidy. Wilson said the surplus could be used to improve bus service, especially for students and the elderly.

Citing the fact that the Cahokia Downs track in St. Clair County has gone out of business, at least temporarily, the manager of Fairmount Park in Madison County is less than enthusiastic about the proposal. Robert H. Graham said Friday he will fight the plan, and warned that he views such a tax as a threat to the future of the track and its more than 1,000 jobs.

"A five percent tax would make it hard for us to continue in operation," he commented.

A potential compromise might be a 2½ percent tax on parimutuel betting, five cents for each $2 bet; this would generate about $2,600,000 yearly. Even a one percent levy could provide more than $2 million revenue desired for transit costs, based on current estimates.

In the absence of local-level financial support by June 30, 1980, the transit staff said, the estimated elimination of 14 Illinois lines, including the Granite City express bus; and reduction of service on all remaining routes, including a 30 percent cutback on the Pontoon express and a 23.5 percent reduction on East Granite, McKinley Bridge, West Granite-Stockyards, and East McKinley routes.

Changes of this magnitude estimated at half or more of all present bus service in the three Illinois counties, would be a blow to the many persons who depend on buses to ride to work and to carry out other errands.

Such a bus cutback would seem particularly inappropriate, in view of the uncertainty of automobile fuel supplies and the worsening of U.S. relations with Middle East countries that produce most of the world's oil.

Sales tax or cigarette tax revisions would be unwise, since they would apply only to Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties. It is obvious that such increases could drive retail businesses elsewhere, harming the business climate and rendering somewhat meaningless the estimates of possible increases in net tax proceeds.

To avoid driving away retail sales, and to prevent excessive cutbacks in the bus routes serving the Quad-Cities and surrounding area, a reasonable level of racing taxation might well be the best answer.

Government officials, citizens and legislators will need to give the subject much thought and discussion during the weeks preceding the 1980 General Assembly session.

Local university 1979 soccer champion of the nation

Hearty congratulations are in order for the soccer Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, new national big school champions.

SIUE defeated powerful soccer teams to qualify for the four-squad National Collegiate Athletic Association finals. The Cougars then went to Tampa, Fla., and overcame Penn State 2-1 Saturday and Clemson 3-2 yesterday for the title. Clemson had eliminated Columbia 4-1 in Saturday's other semifinal game.

Now 19-23 after a tough 1979 schedule, SIUE has reached the pinnacle of soccer achievement after giving strong evidence in recent years that it was on its way to just such lofty heights.

Granite City has clearly established its dominance in Illinois soccer among the high schools, and now the Cougars of the local university has "gone as far as you can go" nationally at the college soccer level.

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville may be the only school of its size (an approximate 10,000 enrollment) and age (15 years at its main campus) that still lacks a gymnasium.

But the soccer Cougars have proved beyond any doubt that SIUE athletic prowess is an indisputable fact that must be reckoned with by all, now and in future years.

Unhappy with buses and drivers

To the Editor:

The following is a letter which could fall into the hands of the public or the United States if things aren't resolved soon:

Dear Jimmy:

You think the Iran crisis is bad, you ain't heard nothing yet.

The Bi-State System, which runs the Illinois, Missouri, is worse. The bus drivers get to enjoy long, leisurely breaks. So much, that they sometimes don't show up at the designated stops when they're supposed to.

If they show up at all, they get their daily laugh as they pass you up while you're standing in the rain or snow. Then we have the drivers who won't show up at all. This makes it a lot of fun for the next driver, because now he or she has twice the load to carry on one bus.

Never let it be said that the bus drivers on this system have no sense of humor. They really enjoy a good laugh. They always laugh in your face when you finally get to board a bus and you try to voice your complaint.

Well, Iran has nothing on us with their hostages. The time may come when a few passengers from the Bi-State system may acquire a few of their own hostages. It's getting to the point where we, the passengers, will have to hijack our own bus just to get home.

And let us not forget the funds Bi-State says it needs. That's all you hear — money for Bi-State. They could make their own money for their fat little pocketbooks if they learned to treat the public right.

They would get more passengers and freer letters if they didn't abuse our pocketbooks.

The Bi-State people will take our money and give us dirty buses, cold buses, hot buses, buses that stop in the hands of the prodder or the motor or brakes just went out, drivers who have no consideration for the people who wait to load and unload, drivers that go 50 mph in a 35 mph zone on a very old bridge which crosses a very deep river.

Let us not forget how much fun it is to stand in the middle of the bus aisle all the way home and try to balance yourself, so you don't fall on an innocent bystander, who is also learning the new trick of balance.

Why should the public go to a chiropractor to get a back adjustment? They can take a ride on a local bus and get all the adjusting their system needs.

The drivers like to out-do one another on making turns sharper than the last driver. So you see, Jimmy, while your problem is across the seas, ours is right in our own backyard.

To us, the public, it seems a lot more important to handle the crisis here at home, rather than our neighbors.

We have to get to work so we can support our families and pay the taxes that go to funds like the Bi-State System and rescue operations in Iran.

Why don't you reach out your hand to help us in this small part of the world, then perhaps you can come up with another good idea for us — the people who are forced to use the Bi-State System — enough money for gasoline and outrageous parking lot fees and we'll drive ourselves to work.

Perhaps a few officials who sit on their duffs in their plan offices should board a Bi-State bus and start enjoying the ride. They have no idea what they're missing out on.

ELAINE S. RATH

Madison yule decorations praised

To the Editor:

The members of the Madison Rotary Club are joining with each family and business concern in Madison in extending congratulations to city officials, the Madison Business Association and the many contributors who have made the new Christmas decorations, now on display on Madison Avenue a huge success.

This truly will be a brighter holiday season.

Communities are filled with men and women who wish something would happen. Only men and women of determination and purpose like those mentioned can make things happen.

Congratulations to them on a job well done.

BREAK INTO STORE
Two color television sets were stolen from Homewood Furniture, 1826 State St., it was discovered Thursday.

An electric meter was removed from the rear of the store and a window was broken. Tumblers were removed from a lock on the rear door to gain entry.

Garage is looted
A tool box containing numerous hand tools, including socket, open end and box wrenches, pliers, a hammer and other items, was stolen from the garage of Fred Shelton, 3000 Edgewood Ave., between Nov. 30 and 7:10 p.m. Sunday. There were no signs of forced entry.

WRENCHES STOLEN
A box containing about 40 to 50 wrenches was stolen from Clark's Hardware, 21st St. and Edwardsville Road, it was discovered Thursday. Entry was gained by forcing open a wooden panel in a door. The wrenches were valued at about $800, the victim said.

News notes

For the first time, the Madison County sheriff's office has added a police dog, Thor, a five-year veteran of the St. Louis police department. The six-year-old, 160-pound German shepherd will be used mainly to track suspects and to search buildings for drugs or suspects. Caesar, obtained earlier, died while still in training.

Under a law signed last week, the salary of the state's attorney of Madison County will rise to $50,500.

Charles E. Mahoney Co., Belleville, is low bidder at $293,000 on reconstruction of the intersection of Illinois Routes 111 and 162 here.

Unemployment in November dropped nationally from 6 to 5.8 percent but rose in Illinois from 5.7 to 6 percent. Some economists are forecasting that the U.S. jobless rate will top 8 percent during 1980.

Assault with knife during tavern dispute

Madison police say they have questioned a subject in connection with Friday night's attempted stabbing at the Bastille tavern, 1316 Madison Ave., Madison, but have released him because the victim does not wish to prosecute.

The victim, Jerry Sidwell, 30, Granite City, told police he was in the tavern when another man grabbed him by the hair and throat, said he was going to kill Sidwell and then tried to cut his throat with a knife.

Three employees of the tavern pushed the assailant away from Sidwell and alleged the man slashed at two of the employees with the knife, missing them.

An unknown patron then pulled a .45 caliber automatic pistol from a shoulder holster, aimed it at the man with the knife and kept it aimed at him until the man with the knife and another man left the tavern, police were told. A pickup truck was seen leaving the parking lot.

Madison officers stopped a pickup truck matching the description of the one which left the Bastille and questioned a Granite City man, but released him, pending further investigation.

YMCA cheese sale Saturday

The Tri-City Area YMCA will be sponsoring a factory-direct Wisconsin cheese sale on Saturday, Dec. 15, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The sale will be held in the parking lot of Numeo Village near Cinema II.

Proceeds will be used to fund YMCA activities.

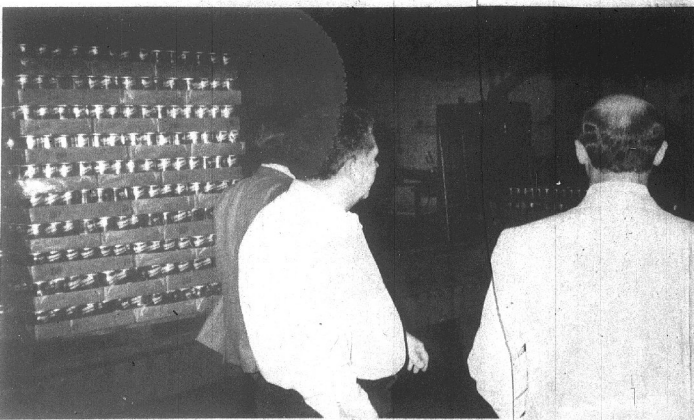

The cheese sale will be supplied by the Golden Bloc Cheese Company of Cottage Grove, Wisconsin and the sale will be conducted directly from a refrigerated truck.

Cheeses available will include golden block brick, a blue ribbon winner at the Wisconsin State Fair; the original and authentic Colby cheese, still hand-made and full-cream; 1979 award-winning mild and sharp cheddars; a creamy Baby Swiss; and many other varieties of natural Wisconsin cheese and cheese spreads.

Hospital Notes

Patients admitted Thursday to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, included: Kim Stafford, Gary Stroud and Mildred Holland, all of Granite City; Elbert Cotton of Madison; and Louis Rubin of Collinsville.

DAMAGE 2 CARS

All four tires were slashed on the auto of Linda Pollard, 106 Kirkpatrick Homes, and two tail lights were broken, it was reported at 1:10 p.m. Sunday. The nearby auto owned by Central Microfilm Co., St. Louis, and parked by Donna Ludescher, St. Ann, Mo., had the two front tires slashed, it was discovered. Both vehicles were in the parking lot near the 100 block of Kirkpatrick Homes when damaged.

STRIKES TRAILER

Karen Schruhl, 21, of 4024 Salsight Walk, Apt. 3, was injured when her car struck a parked flatbed trailer at Niedringhaus Avenue and Benton Street last week. She was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where she was admitted. The Granite City Fire Department had to pry open the hood of her car to turn off the vehicle's engine after the crash.

BATTERY ALLEGED

Ferd Schmidt, 57, of 4209 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged with battery in a complaint signed by Hattie Robinson, 1316 Kirkpatrick Homes after a disturbance at her apartment at 4:30 a.m. Sunday. She alleged Schmidt became angry and struck her face and head several times with fists.

CALLER IS ARRESTED

Lucas Van Buskirk, 20, of 315 Wilson Park Lane, was arrested at 2 p.m. Thursday and was charged with disorderly conduct for allegedly making harassing telephone calls to a woman Oct. 22. A telephone "trap" from the phone company was the basis of the charge, police said.

Says interviews are used to aid applicants who have political clout

To the Editor:

My name is Robert Lee Chinn II. I am studying law enforcement at Belleville Area College and will graduate this coming spring, 1980.

I work full time at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City and attend school full time. At times, I find it very hard to do both.

But since I want to be the best law enforcement officer that I can be, I do it. I was born and raised in Granite City. I love my city and I take pride in it.

This October I took a test for the Granite City Police Department. Out of the testing I tied for the second highest score with a 64.86 score; the highest was 65.33.

The two men who scored this high are number one and two on the city hiring list.

Another man scored the same as me and he ranks fourth on the list. I rank eighth. Why? How?

I was told it was because of my oral interviews. I cannot believe that because I have always done extremely well on oral interviews.

I believe it is because of my political ties, of which I have none.

It's not what you know, but who you know. This practice of hiring has to stop.

When a man is laid off at a plant and he has no experience or schooling in law enforcement, and yet he ranks above others who do, something is wrong.

What does he have going for him? Only a relative who happens to be an officer on the department's hiring list.

When I questioned the head commissioner about this, his reply was, "We can hire who we want; it's up to us." With a remark like that, it is obvious he has forgotten that he is supposed to represent the people.

I've tried talking to my alderman but all he does is tell me not to worry, that the list is good for two years.

I cannot and will not be bought nor will I bend under to any city or government that condones this type of action.

Somewhere, somehow, the battle for fair and proper government must start. This is the time and place for that beginning.

I need help in this action. If people care and are willing to help, please let me know.

Converting cropland into gasohol

By JOAN MURARO

SPRINGFIELD — Converting 60 million acres of American farmland to production of crops for gasohol would generate 5.5 billion gallons of fuel and allow the United States to reduce foreign oil imports by 10 percent, Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon says.

Dixon, serving his second term as secretary of state and a Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate, said the program would "in no way affect our ability to produce food or add to its cost, because last year we had one of the greatest food surpluses in history" and indications are that this year's crop will be as large.

In addition to utilizing the surplus grain, he said, the plan would return to production some 20 million acres currently lying fallow under the set-aside program.

The candidate cited gasohol's increased mileage per gallon, lower pollution impact on inflation by reducing expenditures on foreign oil as the chief reasons to use gasohol — a mixture of alcohol and gasoline — in automobiles and farm equipment.

He called for a "comprehensive" gasohol program to streamline the federal approval process for producing and developing gasohol products, provide accelerated depreciation on investments in capital equipment and end excise taxes on gasohol products.

He said he was uncertain of the extent of federal approval requirements, if any, on the development and production of gasohol, and said he did not know of any excise taxes on gasohol products now.

"I'm saying rules shouldn't be changed sometime in the future to impose these things," pointed out adding that current federal policies for write-offs in capital equipment investments are arbitrary and indefinite.

A desirable side effect of producing gasohol, Dixon said, is that "by-products are highly marketable commodities. In the bushel of corn there are two and a half gallons of alcohol, 16 pounds of high protein feed, two pounds of cooking oil and 18 pounds of carbon dioxide."

Asked about some "expert analysis" estimates that it would take three to five years for the United States to be able to fully get into gasohol production, Dixon cited the nation's success during World War II in developing and producing synthetic rubber within months, when it was needed, and said "experts' suggestions don't jibe with the facts very often."

One firm in Illinois within six months was able to begin manufacturing 120,000 gallons of ethyl alcohol from grain, and plans to expand that figure to 400,000 gallons

NEWLYWEDS. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bell were united in marriage Sept. 15 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. The bride is the former Miss Linda B. Crawford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Crawford of Granite City.

Miss Crawford bride of John C. Bell

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the setting for the Sept. 15 nuptials of Miss Linda B. Crawford and John C. Bell.

Performing the double ring ceremony was Father Seamus Shortall (James Shortall).

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest L. Crawford, 2337 Clark Ave. Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, 2704 Madison Ave., are the parents of the groom.

Soloist Tami Crawford, a sister-in-law of the bride, was accompanied by Larry Heagy on the guitar.

For her wedding, the bride selected an ivory chiffon gown enhanced with Brussels and re-embroidered Alencon lace.

The high neckline, sheer bodice and long bishop sleeves were trimmed with lace and seed pearls.

From the empire waist, an accordion pleated chiffon skirt fell gracefully to the floor with accents of Brussels lace at the flounced hem and attached chapel train.

She chose an ivory picture hat of pleated chiffon and re-embroidered Alencon lace. Bridal illusion veiling cascaded from the back of the hat.

She held a cascade bouquet of pink roses, stephanotis, baby's breath, greenery and trailing ivy and ivory lace streamers.

Matron of honor was

Teresa McClanahan, a sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Tami Crawford, Patti Prosser, a sister of the groom, Pam Bell, a sister-in-law of the groom, and Kathy Ruebhausen.

They were matching floor length gowns of jade chiffon over taffeta. The blouson bodices were fashioned with oval necklines. The dresses featured flared split sleeves and peplums at the waistline.

Each carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, baby's breath, carnations and variegated foliage surrounded by lace and each wore roses and baby's breath in her hair.

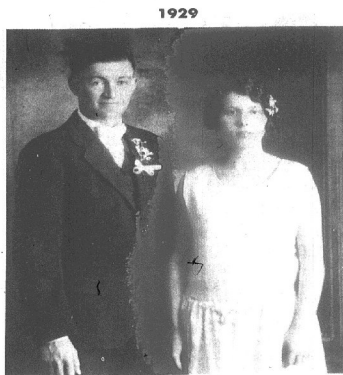

Flower girl Andrea Byers wore a jade green chiffon gown with ivory lace accents and carried a mini bouquet matching the bride's.

The groom chose his brother, Dave Bell, to serve as best man. Groomsmen were Ken Crawford, a brother of the bride, Frank Zabawa, Terry Ravanelli and Tom Hartman.

Seating the guests were Curtis McClanahan, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Drew Gilchrist.

The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner at Ravanelli's Restaurant. A reception was held at Polish Hall in Madison.

After a wedding trip to Florida, they are residing in Granite City.

50TH ANNIVERSARY. Mr. and Mrs. August Wilthaus of Madison celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last week at a reception in their honor. They were married Nov. 28, 1929, in Morrison, Mo.

50th anniversary of Mr., Mrs. Wilthaus

Mr. and Mrs. August (Hilda) Wilthaus, 1608 Seventh St., Madison, were honored last week at a reception in observance of their golden wedding anniversary.

They were married Nov. 28, 1929, at the Evangelical Church in Morrison, Mo. Mrs. Wilthaus is now a member of the First United Methodist Church in Madison and is a member of the Madison Senior Citizens.

Mr. Wilthaus was employed at the Purdy Co. as a crane operator and then as a foreman for 37 years until his retirement in 1973. Mrs. Wilthaus formerly was employed at Nesco as an inspector.

The reception was held in the home of the couple's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth (Doris) Paterson and grandchildren Kevin and Kenny in Granite City.

The home was decorated with gold and white wedding bells. The head table featured gold flowers at each end with a two-tier cake in the center.

Endorse rezoning

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals is recommending that the county board approve rezoning of land along Route 203 on Eagle Park Road for Selden Collins and Willie Ward to establish an auto salvage yard in conjunction with the Lakeside Auto Parts business adjacent to the site. The rezoning would change the property from R-4 residential to M-2 general manufacturing zoning. A stipulation is recommended that the property be fenced to avoid an eyesore.

New U. S. Army training system unveiled here

A new training system has been entered into the U.S. Army inventory with the unveiling Thursday afternoon at the Granite City Army Installation of the TRTG (Tactical-Radar Threat Generator), below left. The TRTG is used in the training of aircrews in quick confirmation and evasive maneuvers for the survival of the aircraft against radar and infrared scanning by anti-aircraft artillery and missiles.

Jim Groesch, below right, an employee of Emerson Electric Co., St. Louis, developers and manufacturers of the TRTG, sits inside the training system enclosure and uses a small TV screen to simulate search-and-destroy procedures by the enemy. The visual data and radar information are fed to the monitor simultaneously.

One way to evade radar scanning is to "duck" behind a close-by obstruction, such as a hill, top left photo. With the TRTG, the military will be able to train in combat situations that are seemingly real except for electronic gun firing and the ability of the system operator to "hit" his target.

Inside the helicopter, top right photo, the pilot keeps a keen eye on the small radar-type screen, marked by an arrow, which tells the pilot not only that his aircraft is being scanned, but also when he has been locked in as a target, the bearing and the range of the enemy's position.

Several configurations of the TRTG can be made, including the Army version shown. The U. S. Air Force type is mounted on a tracked personnel carrier.

The units are 90 percent compatible, making the TRTG an ideal joint service tactical operations system. Also, many men can be quickly trained to operate the TRTG, since prior radar knowledge is not needed and manual controls have been kept to a minimum.

Prior to the development of the TRTG, aircrews were instructed in enemy anti-aircraft evasive maneuvers through films and lectures, without the armed services having the ability to offer hands-on training using aircraft. Helicopters of the Army's 101st Airborne Division helped in the public demonstration of the system here.

$125,000 verdict against city now final; must be paid

A judgment of $125,000 resulting from a suit over a crack in a sidewalk has been given final reaffirmation by the Illinois Supreme Court and leaves the city no alternative but to pay the judgment. Granite City officials were informed last week.

Irvin Slate Jr., assistant city attorney, told City Council members that he had been notified that a motion asking leave to file an appeal of the appellate court ruling in the case to the Illinois Supreme Court had been rejected.

"That's it. That leaves us no alternative but to pay the judgment," he said.

The suit filed by Mrs. Mary Baker of Granite City as the result of back injuries received in a fall at 20th Street and Edison Avenue in June 1973, resulted in the $125,000 verdict in the victim's favor in Madison County Circuit Court.

The city appealed the verdict to the Fifth District Appellate Court, which upheld the Circuit Court ruling.

The city then resorted to its final action, the request for the right to appeal to the Supreme Court.

Haine would stress assistance to victims

William R. Haine, 1020 Diamond St., Alton, has announced that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state's attorney of Madison County.

Haine is running because "People in Madison County need strong, consistent, trustworthy leadership in the state's attorney's office."

"Criminals are the oppressors in our society," Haine said.

"They terrorize the elderly, and make women afraid to leave their homes at night."

"Things are so bad that not even our homes are havens from attack."

Haine said victims of crime should and will be his "clients" in the state's attorney's office.

"Among my first changes will be the institution of a victim assistance program."

"Whether it's a merchant who's received a bad check and needs help, a child sexually abused or a woman raped, it's time for the criminals and not the victims to pick up the tab for crime."

"The moral climate of our county is determined in large part by the state's attorney's office," Haine added.

"I'm running for this office because I feel it is my obligation to offer the people my experience and my attitude toward public service. This is the most important office in Madison County."

Haine is currently practicing law in the Alton-Wood River area. He is a graduate of St. Louis University and the St. Louis University School of Law, where he was an editor and contributor to the St. Louis U. Law Journal.

In 1976, Haine was appointed as assistant public defender of Madison County.

He served in that capacity, full time, until 1978, when he resigned due to his election to a four-year term on the Madison County Board from District 3.

Haine is a member of the County Board, Haine serves on the Judiciary Committee and the Environmental Control Committee.

Haine is a Vietnam War veteran. He served with the First Air Cavalry Division in Vietnam, where he was awarded the Bronze Star.

He has been especially active in the areas of juvenile law and prevention of child abuse since he began practicing law.

He has testified before the Illinois Legislative Commission, which held hearings on the problems of sexual abuse of children.

Haine was chosen for the White House Regional Commission on Children.

Haine serves on the board of directors of the Catholic Children's Home in Alton, the Youth, Family and Children's Advocacy Council in Belleville, and the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission.

He is a member of St. Patrick's parish, Alton, where he serves as president of the St. Pat's Lay Legion.

He is a past president of the Middletown Alton Neighborhood Association.

Haine is married to the former Anna Schickel, who has four daughters: Cecilia, six years old; Elizabeth, five; Mary, 2; and Margaret, one.

Tax audit, jail not synonymous

Internal Revenue Service Some misconceptions about the Internal Revenue Service and its operations have sprung up over the years. Because these misconceptions can cause taxpayers needless worry and apprehension, the IRS has prepared the following questions and answers to allay any doubts these misconceptions may have caused.

Q. Is it true that if I get called in for an audit, I may wind up in jail?

A. An audit is not an adversary situation. It is really only a review of some specified parts of your tax return. Some audits are "no change"; the IRS asks for substantiation, and you are able to provide the information.

Some audits result in additional refunds for taxpayers and, of course, a substantial number can result in additional tax being assessed. You always have the right to appeal an outcome of an audit if you are dissatisfied with the result.

Only those persons who are guilty of willingly and knowingly refusing to pay taxes owed need worry about the possibility of jail.

Q. Why is everyone so afraid of a tax audit?

A. Most people are afraid of what they don't know.

However, a tax audit is not intended to be an adversary situation; it is merely an examination of certain specific issues on a tax return.

Q. Is using my correct Social Security number all that important? After all, my name and address are on the return.

A. The correct Social Security number is important; it is the principal means of identifying taxpayers.

However, if there is a problem with your Social Security number — you're not sure of it, or you lost your card and don't remember the number — only the Social Security Administration and not IRS can issue the correct number, or verify that the one you believe is yours actually is.

Q. Does it really matter which Social Security number appears on the return?

A. Yes, it is important that the husband's number be first and the wife's second on a joint return, regardless of who prepares the return.

Failure to list them in that order will result in a delay in processing the return.

Q. If we owe IRS, they charge us interest, but if IRS owes us, they won't pay interest to us. Why not?

A. Generally, the law requires that interest be paid at the going rate 45 days after the due date of the date of filing, whichever is later.

Most taxpayers receive their refunds within 45 days and, consequently, without interest.

Alternative to outdoor jogging

The Tri-City Area YMCA announced today the continued availability of coed fitness classes.

"Individuals interested in jogging should consider this cardiovascular program as an alternative to cold weather running," Ed Mercer of the "Y" staff commented.

Classes meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 7 a.m., 11:45 a.m. or 5 p.m. and last for 45 minutes.

Stretching and toning exercises and jogging are the basic elements of the class.

"One of the benefits of jogging is improved cardiac efficiency, and there are many others," Physical Director Mercer said.

"People often advance faster than initially estimated because of the nature of the program. It is set up according to the latest data available, and specifically features jogging intervals with walking intervals in between."

"The program is completely individualized. Each person sets his or her own goal. And the participants record their own progress."

"Anyone who desires further information should call me at 876-2200."
